

RUM BATTLE IS FLARING AGAIN IN WASHINGTON

Wets and Drys Are Lining Up for Battle on Three Sectors in Capital.

TEST VALIDITY OF DRY LAW

Palmer's Beer Ruling Is Causing Trouble to Dry Leaders in Congress.

By United Press Leased Wire
Washington.—The historic "battle of prohibition" which many of the dries believed had been brought to a powerful end by the eighteenth amend- ment and the Volstead law is breaking out again today with unexpected vigor in all three branches of the govern- ment—legislative, executive and judi- cial.

The developments in the renewed fight are:

Judicial "sector"—The supreme court Tuesday hears arguments in the second big attack on the validity of the prohibition amendment, the ground being that section three, proposed by President Harding while a senator, is unconstitutional because it limited to seven years the time in which states might ratify.

Executive "sector"—Dry forces be- lieving the president and the attorney general not to put into effect the ruling of former Attorney General Pal- mer that beer and wine may be made and prescribed in unlimited quantities as medicine. Dry and wet leaders are urging appointment of "strict" and "liberal" prohibition enforcement of- ficers. Druggists and chemists, meet- ing here appeal to prohibition Com- missioner Kramer for fewer restric- tions on use of alcohol in making of medicines.

Legislative "sector"—More drastic amendments to the Volstead act to prevent any widespread sale of beer as the result of the Palmer ruling be- ing considered.

The center of interest in the battle Tuesday is the unexpected "flank at- tack" on the validity of the prohibition act in the supreme court. The case of the federal government and the dries will be in the hands of a woman, Mrs. Annette Abbot Adams, assistant attorney general, who is now arguing all the prohibition cases in the su- preme court.

Expansion of one case which will determine whether liquor owned by an individual, but held in a bonded ware- house, may be removed to man's home for his private use, was asked by the court Tuesday in cases appealed from St. Louis by Charles Cornell and George J. Ohio. The court previously has held that liquor may be removed from one building of the owner to an- other, but has never passed on the question of taking it out of bond.

RUSSIA PREPARES FOR WORLD POWER

Military and Commercial Expansion Contemplated
by Soviets.

London—Russia laid plans Tuesday to become a world power.

The French, believing these plans included a military offensive against weak European nations, hurriedly sent General Weygand to aid Poland in preparing her defenses. Despite the peace treaty signed last week the French declared the soviets were piling up huge troop concentrations pre- paratory to a great drive on Poland.

France also declared there was proof of the soviet intention to go through with the former Russian plan of an extensive campaign which would take the Red armies through Rumania, Hungary, Czechoslovakia and Serbia.

Meanwhile from Russian sources it was learned the soviets are preparing for commercial growth. This was re- flected in the reletting of Nikolai Lenin as to communist principles. He persuaded the Russian commun- ists to approve free trade in surplus farm products and renunciation of re- quisitions on produce.

While Lenin stated clearly that the soviets had "territory measure," the commercial instincts of the Russians were aroused. They saw the nation once more a world power in trade.

These statements were made by Arthur J. Morris, head of the "Mor- ris plan" system of industrial bank- ing. In an interview with the United Press Tuesday.

"The seemingly impossible feat ac- complished by the United States dur- ing the war was largely the result of self-denial by our people," Morris said.

"They are beginning to learn that they must apply the same principle to the present period of reconstruction. The country will get back to normal in just the ratio that every one employs the common sense and character he showed during the war."

Trenton, N. J.—A 16-year-old girl's offer to sell herself into marriage for $1,000 was taken seriously by at least a score of men Tuesday.

That number of letters had been received by Dorothy Miller, who appealed for the money to pay for an operation her mother must undergo Sunday, with mar- riage when she reached the age of 18 as a reward.

The letters which were about evenly divided between New York and Philadelphia, included one from an actor who is to appear at a theatre next week. He said he would arrange to let her have the money and that after seeing him, she could judge for herself whether she wished to carry out the contract.

Another letter was written by Pete Herman, former baseball- weight champion boxer, who pro- posed to battle in the ring for her benefit. Still another letter offered a job to her father whose unemployment is responsible for the family's financial plight.

NATIONAL PACT CAUSE OF MANY RAIL DISPUTES

Railroad Head Declares Agreements Restrict Railroad Efficiency.

By United Press Leased Wire
Chicago.—Specific rules of the na- tional agreements were subjects to re- newed attacks by W. W. Atterbury, vice president of the Pennsylvania railroad, before the United States railroad labor union Tuesday.

Executive Frank B. Walsh, rep- resenting rail unions, obtained some concessions from Atterbury but in the main the witness stuck to his state- ment that the agreements are "re- strictive of production in every way."

The hearing developed that there are about 175 cases of dispute arising under the national agreements now pending before the railroad board. Union leaders used this statement in an effort to discredit Atterbury's claim that the national agreements are diffi- cult of interpretation and will bring about constant differences between employer and employee.

Questioned by Walsh, Atterbury admitted the right of railroad employes to select representatives to deal with the company.

"But I hold," declared Atterbury, "that the representatives of the ma- jority do not have the right to act for the minority if the minority doesn't want to be represented by them."

The witness added, however, that should a decision be reached favor- able to the men through the repre- sentations of the majority's committee, the minority would receive the same benefit.

The Pennsylvania railroad would be willing to deal with an employees' or- ganization financially able to carry out its agreements, declared Atterbury.

"But this organization," he said, "should not advocate a closed shop, sympathetic strike or limit pro- duction."

Expanding on the subject of the strike denied the miners the right to organize and the right of collective bargaining, two of the main points fought by the employees after the operators had instituted an open shop policy.

Governor Kilby's award was still under consideration of the executive board of the union Tuesday and it will be until Thursday when the board adjourns. At that time a special committee appointed by John I. Lewis, international president of the union, will go to Alabama to investi- gate the decision. The committee also will settle financial matters for the union and will attend to other business. It was not empowered, however, to call another strike in pro- test of the award. The committee will report back to Lewis with whom rests the power of calling the miners out again.

But Lewis has always said the United Mine workers could not break its agreements and it is understood he is not contemplating another strike in Alabama.

TAX COLLECTIONS ARE BIGGER THAN ESTIMATES

Washington—Reports to the treas- ury Tuesday showed the income and profit tax collections on March 15 probably will total $600,000,000 or more.

This is about $100,000,000 above treasury estimates. It does not affect, however, previous estimates that for the entire year income and profit tax collections will be about $1,000,000,000 less than last year, it was said.

FARMERS OPEN NEW DRIVE FOR QUICK RELIEF

Agriculturists Demand Congress Translate Promises
Into Action.

SITUATION IS DELICATE

Business Men Are Urging Tax
Revision Be Taken Up
Before Tariff.

By Ralph H. Turner

Washington.—A drive upon con- gress in the interest of farmer relief legislation will be started coincident with the opening of the special session on April 11 it was learned Tuesday.

On that date delegates from all states will come here for an executive meeting of the American Farm Bu- reau Federation, representing a million and a half farmers. A week later Rep- resentatives of the National Farmers' association will gather here.

Delegates of all three organizations will urge upon congressmen that promises for relief be translated into action.

The farmer's demands will include one for an embargo on dairy products, hide and wool and other commodities.

Farmers, according to their rep- resentatives, are losing hope in tariff relief fearing that an emergency tariff may be held up in congress and that permanent revision may take from seven to nine months.

The campaign of the farmers is one angle of a delicate tariff and revenue situation.

Start Tariff Bill

A second angle was presented in congress where the house ways and means committee Tuesday started writing a permanent tariff law in ac- cordance with a program sanctioned by congressional leaders and tentatively approved by President Harding. This program is a farmer victory.

It contemplates passage of the Fordney emergency tariff in the same form as vetoed by President Wilson except that it will be limited to six months instead of a year; next in order, an anti-dumping bill and a mea- sure basing import duties on American instead of foreign values and then per- manent tariff revision followed by revenue revision. While the Fordney, anti-dumping and valuation bills, all anti-dumping measures, are being passed, the ways and means committee will write the permanent tariff and the senate finance committee will hold hearings on revenue revision.

This program will encounter demo- cratic and perhaps some republican opposition creating doubt as to whether it can be carried out.

Despite the fact that republicans hope to show unusual speed, it is doubtful whether revenue legislation can be reached before December under the program.

Want Tax Revision First

This brings up the possible attitude of business toward the congressional program. If revenue revision is not started until December, it cannot be finished until the year 1922 is some months old. This would force busi- ness to go into the year without knowledge of what taxes it would have to pay, an uncertainty which might prevent recovery from the present depression. Business men declared that revenue legislation would have to be started now.

Some members of President Har- ding's cabinet are reported to be in sympathy in business demands while others favor giving tariff precedence. Secretary of Agriculture Wallace is said to favor an embargo. Secretary of Commerce Hoover opposes such action believing it will injure Ameri- ca's chance in foreign markets. Sec- retary of the Treasury Mellon and Secretary of War Weeks, both bank- ers, are believed to favor revising revenue first.

What Remains Of Armour Elevator

When the Armour Grain Company built its huge elevator at Chicago, the engineers prepared against pos- sible explosions from spontaneous combustion. The skeleton was built of steel with the lower part of the bin walls of heavily reinforced concrete. The upper walls were of lighter con- struction, designed to give way in event of an explosion and prevent to- tal destruction. The picture shows how the lighter walls were carried away by the terrific explosion the night of March 19, which shook all Chicago. Much salvage will be pos- sible and some of the lower walls may be saved standing, although this has not been definitely determined.

She said 160 girls in Barnard Hall were poisoned and ill all Tuesday night and could not attend classes on Wednesday. Many of the girls were confined to their rooms for several days.

University authorities denied that more than 15 or 20 girls were victims of ptomaine poisoning while students placed the number at 200.

Satisfactory Progress in Pack-

Secretary Davis.

By United Press Leased Wire
Washington.—Foreign affairs oc- cupied the major attention of President Harding and his cabinet at their meeting Tuesday.

Secretary of State Hughes led be- fore the cabinet a general survey of the foreign relations of the United States. He made no recommendations regarding the problems, it was said.

The discussion, it was understood, included reference to the question involved in the forthcoming visit of Rene Viviani, former French premier.

The allied debt situation also is understood to have figured in the discussion although nothing definite was said on this point.

Secretary of La or Davis reported favorable progress on the packer war dispute, it was stated.

The question of war liquidation was again before the cabinet Tues- day and the opinion was expressed that special legislation will be neces- sary for creation of the liquidation committee which the president has in mind.

TWO DRY OFFICERS ARE KILLED IN WHISKY RAID

El Paso, Texas.—S. E. Beckett and Arch Wood, prohibition officers, were slain while searching for a suspected consignment of whisky at the Shear- man ranch near here Tuesday.

The two officers were members of a party of federal agents who went to the ranch to intercept the alleged delivery of 23 cases of whisky. As they approached the ranch house, they were called on to halt. As they advanced, the party was fired on from the house. Beckett and Wood both being killed.

A search was begun for C. P. Shearman and his son, Neil, owners of the ranch.

White Plains, New York.—It was sort of a double life for the Lebrocks in various ways, according to com- plaints filed in a dual divorce suit here Tuesday.

John and Henry Lebrock, brothers, living in Mamaroneck, married sisters at a double wedding in Newark, N. J. eight years ago.

According to the brothers' counsel, John served the papers in the action on Henry's wife and Henry served the summons on Mrs. John.

Allies Plan to Give Big Slice of Upper Silesian Coal Fields to Poland Despite Victory for Germany in Plebiscite.

By J. W. T. Mason

By United Press Leased Wire
New York.—The pro-German result of the Upper Silesian plebiscite is a severe blow to France's strategic plans in Poland.

The French authorities therefore have already begun an agitation to override the result of the plebiscite and give Upper Silesia to the Poles by the fiat of the allied powers.

This is the explanation of the re- port from Paris that the council of ambassadors will protect Poland's in- terests in Upper Silesia. As a matter of fact Upper Silesia hasn't been Polish for 700 years. Polish miners, however, long have resided in the district and the Polish speaking residents outnumber the German. The result of the plebiscite shows that a great majority of the Polish speak- ing miners voted for German sovereignty.

They undoubtedly realized that they could make more money and a bet- ter living if the mines were run by Germans than if by Poles.

On the Polish side many mines which either are idle or worked with a minimum of result because of Polish mismanagement. This object lesson undoubtedly had an effect on the voting.

France is trying to make Poland a French military outpost in eastern Europe. Whatever lowers Poland's prestige, lowers that of France in the eyes of the world.

France too, wants to cripple Germany as much as possible. The retention of Upper Silesia by the Germans will help Germany's economic recovery.

This is disquieting to the French. Briand's government therefore has an additional reason for trying to nullify the plebiscite.

Washington.—The formal call for the extraordinary session of congress to meet at noon April 11, was issued by President Harding Tuesday.

The proclamation, the first issued by Harding, was in the usual for- mal style. It set forth that pub- lic interest requires that the congress meet in extra session "to receive such communication as be made by the executive."

CHARGES AGAINST STILLMAN MAY BAR HIM FROM COURT

Rumors of Private Settlement of Divorce Case Are Revived.

BULLETIN

New York.—James A. Stillman Tuesday tendered his resignation as president of the National City bank. However, the board of directors un- animously refused to accept the resig- nation.

At the regular meeting of the board, Stillman's resignation was tendered to take effect immediately.

Rumors that Stillman would resign have been in circulation since it be- came known that he and his wife were suing each other for divorce.

It was not stated whether Stillman would insist on his resignation being accepted.

New York.—On the eve of the first open court hearing in the Stillman divorce scandal, reports of a private settlement were revived Tuesday.

Emphasis was placed in certain quarters on the fact that an applicant for a divorce must come into court "with clean hands" and that charges regarding the alleged relations of James A. Stillman, multi-millionaire banker with "Mrs. Florence H. Leeds," had made it difficult for him to obtain a decree in this state.

Should Stillman and his attorneys become convinced that counsel for Mrs. "Effie" Potter Stillman can prove the allegations they have made against the banker, it was pointed out that his legal course would be as expeditious as possible. Even though Mrs. Stillman should consent to withdrawal of the suit as applied to herself, it was stated on good authority that she will insist upon legal establishment of the legitimacy of her 2-year-old son, Guy, who was named as co-defendant.

This could be accomplished through a separate action.

The hearing which opens before Justice Morschauer in White Plains Wednesday is technically for the sole purpose of inquiring into Stillman's ability to pay the increased alimony and counsel fees asked by his wife.

However, anything that has to do with the case may be brought out in the course of the attorney's argu- ments. According to a man who is very closely connected with the case, "anything may come out at the hear- ing Wednesday."

This brought up the question of whether a letter Mrs. Stillman is al- leged to have written to her husband in the spring of 1918 referring to her loneliness and friendship for Fred Beauvais, French Canadian guide, may be introduced Wednesday. Di- vergent opinions were expressed in this connection.

Czarina's Gems Found In Russ Envoy's Trunk

By United Press Leased Wire
Rome—Jewels and other finery, be- lieved to have been property of the czar of Russia, were sequestered Tuesday by the Italian government.

They were taken from the trunks of the new soviet representative here de- spite his protests that as a diplomat, his baggage was not subject to search.

M. Vorowski, head of the Russian delegation, which ranks as a commer- cial mission, Tuesday revoked his first decision to break off relations with Italy. His baggage yielded a gold col- lar studded with 83 pearls and other jewels and a tiara set with diamonds. The two pieces evidently were prop- erty of the czarina.

There was a regal dinner set of sil- ver, a numismatic collection believed to have been the czar's, five priceless Persian tapestries and quantities of gold and platinum and costly furs.

Customs officers expected to find relics of the czar in the baggage but declared they had not expected to find riches comparable only to the gifts carried by the Queen of Sheba.

NEED OF LEAGUE MORE APPARENT TO NEW REGIME

Coolidge's Message to Boston
Reflects Attitude of Harding Cabinet.

BY DAVID LAWRENCE
Copyright 1921

Washington.—Calvin Coolidge was just an ordinary vice president, his message to the Boston Chamber of Commerce would have been ac- cepted here as the personal expres- sion of an individual opinion. But since he sits at the cabinet table and listens to the discussions by Presi- dent Harding and Secretary of State Hughes on matters of foreign policy, the opinions of a vice president be- come as important as those of any member of the cabinet.

Mr. Coolidge attracted attention with his message to the Boston Chamber of Commerce because he is the first member of the Harding ad- ministration to say publicly that the future of American business is inter- woven with a settlement of inter- national questions. Members of the cabinet have said more than that privately but Mr. Coolidge says pub- licly: "With the settlement of inter- national relations and the defining of the German indemnity, we ought to reach a stabilized condition which should result in a large business expansion."

The foregoing sentiment is hardly in line with the viewpoint expressed by "irreconcilables" in congress who have insisted that America could take along without Europe and that the United States had no relationship to the indemnity question. Indeed, a canvass of the cabinet members of the Harding administration discloses the fact that more of them lean to- ward the idea of reaching a prompt agreement with Europe with the pre- sent League of Nations and treat as a basis that would be "scrapping" of the whole league and treaty.

During the campaign Mr. Coolidge was careful not to say anything that could be construed as an absolute re- pudiation of the present League of Nations, though, like the others, he had much to say against foreign and unnecessary obligations.

Generally speaking, he is regarded as one of the friends of the treaty and league more favorable to the Eihli Root wing of the Republican party than the Borah-Johnson faction.

Talks which the writer has had with several members of the cabinet lead to the conclusion that the sentiment for a definite settlement of the exact amount which America will oblige the allies to pay to her is looming up as of much importance almost as the question of what Germany should pay the allies.

Even western senators are begin- ning to realize that after all is said and done and the emergency tariff has been enacted to prevent the importation of European products that compete with American goods it will become necessary to do some- thing to get foreign markets for the American producer and that this can come only through the equalization of international exchange.

The important fact is that wherever the members of the Harding admin- istration turn in their daily work and effort to bring back normal conditions in American industry and agriculture, the League of Nations or the German indemnity or other European ques- tions stare them in the face as in- escapable and unavoidable. Vice Presi- dent Coolidge's speech is significant of what is going on at the Harding cabi- net table.

BASIC 8-HOUR DAY BILL DIES IN ASSEMBLY

Labor Federation Measure Is Debate.

BOOM REFERENDUM BILL

Measure Is Advanced by State Senate.

By United Press Leased Wire

Madison.—The Conway 8-hour day bill forcing every mill, factory and manufacturing plant in Wisconsin under its provisions except cheese fac- tories and creameries, was defeated in the assembly Tuesday by a vote of 45 to 39.

The bill, introduced by the Wisconsin Federation of Labor, was drafted for the purpose of attracting the farmer members of the assembly. The origi- nal measure declared for an 8-hour day as a public policy in the state. The bill carried an amendment which brought every mill factory and man- ufacturing plant under the 8-hour provisions. At the last minute William Olson, chairman of the agricultural committee, offered a substitute amendment, which excluded cheese factories and creameries.

Assemblyman L. J. Pierson, Mil- waukee, denounced the bill.

"No state adjoining Wisconsin has such a law," he said. "Wisconsin manufacturers under the provision of this bill must compete with the man- ufacturers of adjoining states where nine and ten hours constitute a day's labor."

"The state has no moral right to in- terfere between employer and em- ployee."

"This bill means ruin to Wiscon- sin industry. Labor is simply trying to boost its scale."

Prevent Idleness

Assemblyman E. H. Kilian re- plied.

"This is a boost for labor. There are 200,000 idle men in the state. If we force two shifts it means more jobs for more men."

The principal speech against the measure was made by Assemblyman P. W. Ploof.

"The statement is made on this floor that Wisconsin is a progressive state and this is a progressive mea- sure. It is a progressive state. We have progressed so rapidly that we are now trying to find a landing place."

"Why are the farmers excluded? der this bill? I am sick and disgusted at these efforts to exempt farmers from all the radical legislation sug- gested here."

"This bill is dangerous. It tends to create idleness. The more idlers we have the more crime. We are tread- ing on dangerous ground."

Farmers Not Exempt

"The farmers are exempted appar- ently," said Assemblyman Mark Cat- lin, Appleton. "But they will have to pay. Everyone will have to pay. The best farm labor will leave for the factories and short hours and the fac- tories will get only the incompetents discarded by the factories."

Jewelry Store
Clock Time Is Nearly Right

Appleton people who are "setting" their trusty Big Bens and jeweled time pieces by clocks in the jewelry stores, probably have pretty accurate time, at least within a few seconds of Western Union time. A comparison of the clocks in the jewelry stores and correct time made Monday afternoon developed the fact that most of the down town time regulators are within a very few seconds of Western Union time.

Those who are keeping their watches according to the big clock in St. Joseph church tower had better always start out about four minutes behind time or they will be continually too early.

GROWING DEAF WITH HEAD NOISES?
TRY THIS

If you are growing hard of hearing and fear Catarrhal Deafness or if you have roaring, rumbling, hissing noises in your ears go to your druggist and get 1 ounce of Parment (double strength), and add to it 1/4 pint of hot water and a little granulated sugar. Take 1 tablespoonful four times a day. This will often bring quick relief from the distressing head noises. Clogged nostrils should open, breathing become easy and the mucus stop dropping into the throat. It is easy to prepare, costs little and is pleasant to take. Anyone who is threatened with Catarrhal Deafness or who has head noises should give this preparation a trial.

A HOME-MADE GRAY
HAIR REMEDY

You Can Make a Better Gray Hair
Remedy Than You Can Buy

Gray, streaked or faded hair is not only unbecoming, but unnecessary. Anyone can prepare a simple mixture at home that will darken gray hair and make it soft and glossy. To a half-pint of water add 1 ounce of bay rum, a small box of Barbo Compound and 1/4 ounce of glycerine. These ingredients can be bought at any drug store at very little cost. The druggist will put it up for you. Apply to the hair twice a week until the desired shade is obtained. This will make a gray-haired person look twenty years younger. It is easy to use, does not color the scalp, is not sticky or greasy and does not rub off.

THE BOOK OF DEBORAH

There Is Delight in the Triumph of Will-Power Over a Lost Love

My only comfort that day was a letter from Deb: a farewell written on shipboard. The body of it ran:

"I am absurdly happy with Ted! I have no right to be so happy."

In spite of my anxiety about Bob, I smiled. It was good to know that the darling girl was a lot more in love than she ever had expected to be.

"I'm telling you this in justice to my nice new husband," Deb continued. "I owe it to him, for as you know, Jane, I have spent the better part of the year nursing a broken heart. Well, it mended, my dear."

"I was perfectly honest with myself when I thought that I'd never be happy again on account of my schoolgirl flair for Jim Lorimer. And under the spell of that obsession, I was tempted, as I told you at the time, to let Ann disgrace herself, and set in motion the machinery of divorce, so that I could take her man! Isn't it awful to remember now? But then—I considered it an ideal passion—when it was only morbidness, and criticism, I suppose."

"Confession is good for the soul. I want to get this off my mind. Then I can forget it forever."

"All my thoughts about Jim made me absolutely wretched. And because they made me so unhappy, I decided that I would be coldly modern and scientific about my heart affair. Melancholy destroys the best in any human being. Happiness is mostly contrast between two states of mind—but is that a reason for enduring misery?"

"Why should I let unrequited love destroy me? What would I gain by sacrificing myself to my love for a married man?"

"Not one single blessing! Not the tatters of any happiness!"

"Not even by the weight of a hair could I add an ounce to love's value, for either the man I loved, or for myself. Not by living up to my ideal—or obsession—nor by dying for it. Could I turn a single soul from the ordinary hypocrisy concerning the rights of irregular love, nor save a single adoring woman from ultimate disillusionment concerning it."

Could I turn a single soul from the ordinary hypocrisy concerning the rights of irregular love, nor save a single adoring woman from ultimate disillusionment concerning it."

"I put the case to myself as plainly as I could. It was a mathematical problem. And I decided, very practically, that a love which would eventually wreck me would better be forgotten."

"I must say that I believe that girls who are tempted in the same way, unless another woman's husband makes love to them—I am sure they would be far happier if they would make themselves false the truth about their romance."

"They can take their minds off from that desirable married man—if they will use a fraction of their will power! I've proved it. And they will find, as a reward, in fact, they will be surprised to find how much delight there is in the triumph!"

"As I told you long ago, Jane, I let Ted come to see me, at first, solely for the sake of taking my mind from another girl's husband. Soon I discovered that while my mad dreams about Jim made me wretched, all my temperate thoughts about Ted made me peacefully happy!"

"My dear, I truly believe that propriety is a hellish environment for an emotional girl, but I am just as sure that our emotions are much more within our control than we care to imagine."

"And now, Jane, I must tell you a secret. I can—now—because I told it to my husband last night. I'm more in love with Ted, actually, than I ever was with Jim, in my imagination!"

"I can't tell you what wonderful experiences we two plan to share. Travel, books, music, and Ted's work, too. And whatever grows up between Ted and me will be the more lasting because we planted the seeds by choice, and because we intend to nurture our love—we WILL to abide by our choice!"

"Do you know, Jane, I wish we were poor! Then I could cook and sew for my man. And darn his socks! Isn't that a precious wish?"

"Remember, you and Bob are coming to South America this winter. Then what good talks we will have!"

"Ted sends his best to the finest little sister a forlorn lover ever went to for advice."

Aged Couple Celebrates 60th Wedding Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Christian Wunderlich Surprised With Family Reunion.

Mr. and Mrs. Christian Wunderlich, 800 North Division st., who are among the earliest and most respected settlers of Outagamie county, celebrated their sixtieth wedding anniversary Tuesday with a family reunion planned as a surprise to them by Miss Ida Wunderlich and other members of the family. It was the first reunion ever held by the family and a group picture was taken by a local photographer following the anniversary dinner.

The first inkling the worthy and rugged pioneers had that their wedding anniversary was to be made one of the happiest events in their lives was when they were invited to attend a special ceremony at St. Paul Lutheran church at 10:30 a. m. where they were united in marriage by the Rev. J. J. Sauer in the presence of their seven children, 37 grand children and two great grand children.

Mr. Wunderlich is 87 years of age and Mrs. Wunderlich 79. They were married at Stephentown and immediately took up their home on an 80-acre farm in the town of Ellington.

which Mr. Wunderlich cleared and which he later increased in 140 acres. The old homestead has been in the family ever since and is now occupied by Charles Wunderlich, a son.

Born in Germany

Mr. and Mrs. Wunderlich were born in Germany. Mr. Wunderlich had been in the county five years before his marriage and his bride, whose maiden name was Miss Dora Berg, three years. Seven children survive, Charles and Chris of Ellington; Fred of Greenfield; Ralph of Center; Ida and Mrs. J. G. Mohr of Appleton; and Mrs. B. A. Runk of Sheboygan. Mrs. Martin Fellows, another daughter, died two years ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Wunderlich retired from active life fourteen years ago and removed to Appleton to pass their declining years. Both enjoy the best of health and are great readers, keeping abreast of the times. Mr. Wunderlich was elected to office several times in the town in which he lived. While advanced in years he is still active and it is only last winter that he sawed and split several cords of wood at his home, insisting on doing the work rather than having someone else do it for him.

WANT BUSINESS MEN TO FIGHT NEW TAX BILLS

Appleton will have a good sized delegation of business men aboard the special train to Madison Thursday morning when the statewide protest against further taxation brings hundreds to the capital for hearings on the Severson, Conant and Arnold bills. The exact train arrangements have not been announced, but it is believed that a special section of the south-bound morning train leaving here at 7:38 will be started from Green Bay, picking up men at each city between there and Fond du Lac, and between Fond du Lac and Madison. All who plan to go are expected to notify Secretary Hugh G. Corbett of the chamber of commerce.

At least 40 men from Green Bay and the same number from Oshkosh will make the trip. Dining and parlor cars will be attached to the train. An effort now is being made to interest farmers to go to Madison to help fight these tax measures.

NOTED PEDIGREE MAN ENGAGED FOR MAY SALE

Influence and prestige will be given the Fox River Valley Guernsey sale here this spring by the presence of C. L. Hill, Rosendale, as pedigree man. Mr. Hill has written the sales committee that he will surely be here to take charge of this part of the work.

The sale date has been changed from May 4 to May 6 because the auctioneer could not be secured for the former date. Waupaca county's date of May 5 will remain, carrying out the same idea as before of having the two sales come in succession. Free transportation is to be provided all Waupaca county people who come to the Appleton sale, thus avoiding the inconvenient train service.

Mr. Hill is one of the leading Guernsey breeders of Fond du Lac county. He is said to know more about Guernseys and Guernsey pedigrees than any other man in the United States. His presence at the sale is expected to attract many buyers who rely on his superior cattle judging ability.

Your Easter Dinner

As it is a feminine prerogative to go to church on Easter Sunday if on no other why not plan an Easter dinner that can be easily accomplished after church?

A fresh strawberry shortcake might be the special treat in the dinner. And when shortcake is served the first part of the meal should be light if full justice is done to the dessert. Most people, men especially, think "old-fashioned" strawberry shortcake far superior to any elaborate affair made with sponge cake and whipped cream.

If the family likes crispy crusts it's nice to make individual cakes but the one big shortcake is softer and looks quite impressive if served at the table.

Menu for Easter.
BREAKFAST—Orange and grape juice, soft boiled eggs, hot cross buns, coffee.
DINNER—Consomme, scalloped oysters, twice baked potatoes, olives and radishes, strawberry shortcake, coffee.
SUPPER—Molded salmon, mayonnaise dressing, cheese crackers, Easter cakes, tea.

My Own Recipes.
No Easter breakfast is complete without hot cross buns. This old English recipe differs from our rule in that it calls for no eggs. More butter is used so the coat is practically the same. Let the soft boiled eggs stand in boiling water for 4 minutes. The water should not bubble, but should maintain a temperature just at the boiling point.

Hot Cross Buns.
One and one-half cups scalded milk, 1/2 cup sugar, 1/2 cup butter, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 1/2 yeast cake dissolved in 1/2 tablespoons lukewarm water, 1/2 teaspoon cinnamon, 1/2 teaspoon cloves, 1 cup currants, 4 cups flour.

Mix flour, sugar, spice and currants. Put in bread pan and make a hole in the center. Add the dissolved yeast and 1 cup of milk cooled to lukewarm temperature. Stir the liquid into the surrounding flour to make a thin batter. Cover with a cloth and put in a warm place to rise.

When the sponge is beginning to get light beat in the butter which has been melted add salt and the rest of the milk if necessary to make a rather soft paste. Cover and let rise over night.

In the morning shape in small balls and let rise half an hour. Cut a deep cross with a sharp knife on the top of each bun and bake 15 or 20 minutes in a hot oven. When nearly done dredge the cross with sugar and finish baking.

Cheese Crackers.
Four tablespoons grated cheese, 2 tablespoons butter, thin crackers. Rub cheese and butter to a smooth paste. Spread on the crackers, dust with paprika and bake a few minutes in a quick oven.

Adventures of the Twins

Oliver Roberts Barton

"Planning a New Adventure"

By Oliver Roberts Barton

"We're glad to see you!" cried the twins.

"That's fine! And I'm glad to see you, too, kiddies," answered the Mushroom.

Money and Nick had discovered him a moment before, near them in the Meadow, and he had told them that the circus animals had escaped.

"Now I shall go back to Fairyland," said he. "When the Fairy Queen hears that you are so sorry she will send some one to hunt up the missing creatures. They ought to be practicing tricks all the time, and we can't find 'em any too soon."

"Goodby, now, children, I must be going," and the Mushroom started to sing into the ground, like a mole burrowing its way to safety, only backwards. There was really nothing left of him but his little bowler hat, when suddenly Nick cried out, "Oh, please wait a minute, Mr. Mushroom."

Won't you ask the Fairy Queen if Nancy and I may go and search, too?"

The Mushroom popped up again. In fact, he came all the way out of the ground and waved his arms excitedly. (He had arms and legs, being magical.)

"Why, my dears, I s'pose you may. But it's most unusual for children to be hunting lions and tigers."

"Please," begged both twins eagerly. The Mushroom ran to the hole in the ground through which he had first come. "Then here are the Green Shoes," he said. "Slip 'em on and I'll take you to the Fairy Queen. She will likely send Mr. Whippet-Flap with you, as I shall have my hands full with the crazy March Hares and the other creatures here who need to be looked after."

The children slipped on the magic shoes and in a trice were standing before the Fairy Queen.

"Hello, dear children," she nodded, smiling.

CLEAR TRACK FOR TAXATION BILLS IN LEGISLATURE

Administration Forces Line Up Back of Dahl Tax Increase Measure.

(Special to Post-Crescent) Madison—Taxation bills will be brought to the fore this week in the legislature with a public hearing on all tax measures, set for Thursday afternoon, March 24. The hearings will be before the joint finance committee and members of the assembly committee on taxation.

Among the bills to be considered are: The Severson surtax bill. The Arnold combined income and surtax bill. The Conant income tax bill. The Dahl income tax bill. The Caldwell bill redistributing income tax revenues.

Unless the assembly finally disposes of the Hansen bill, repealing the personal property offset, this measure will also be discussed at the hearing. The business interests of the state are expected to send many representatives to protest against any increase in the income tax at this time. The legislature will get a clear insight into actual industrial conditions at the hearing, members predicted. No other committee hearings are scheduled for the day and all members of the two houses are expected to attend the tax hearings.

Administration forces are known to be solidly behind the Dahl bill raising income tax exemptions and increasing the tax rate on higher incomes; the Severson surtax bill levying a surtax on incomes above $5,000 and the Hansen bill, repealing the personal property offset. It is estimated the state would gain $11,000,000 in taxes annually should this program be enacted.

The administration's ideas on taxation will be hotly contested in both houses. The Hansen bill was defeated in the assembly last week and is now up on a motion to reconsider. Opponents of the bill declare there is no chance of the repeal getting through the house. The Dahl bill is introduced by title only and the real nature of the measure is not known except that it conforms to the federal income tax law so far as exemptions are concerned.

The Arnold bill boosts tax rates throughout. The Conant bill boosts rates and distributes them more widely than does the present law. The bill will raise $16,500,000, it is claimed.

The Caldwell bill redistributes income tax receipts with 40 per cent going to the state, 40 per cent to the municipality and 20 per cent to the county. The state would gain $1,800,000 annually by this distribution.

FIVE TAKEN IN LIQUOR RAID GIVE $1,000 BOND

Ashland—Five men, arrested on Sunday in a raid at Saxon, Wis., reputed by prohibition officials to be the worst place in northern Wisconsin for illicit liquor traffic, waived preliminary examination and gave bonds for $1,000 each here on Monday with the exception of one man, Louis Valler, saloon keeper, who was sent to the Douglas county jail at Superior.

The liquor seized was moonshine, said to have been made in Ashland. It burned like kerosene when a match was applied.

Saxon is a few miles from Hurley, Wis., and the village and the forests between it and Lake Superior have been regarded as resorts of the moonshiners, officials said.

TAXPAYER SUES TO STOP OSHKOSH MARKET

Oshkosh—City officials, including Mayor McHenry, Councilmen Porath and Hart, City Clerk Witzel, Treasurer Witte and Controller Meyer have been served with summons in an action started by Elmer A. Gilson, "as a taxpayer," to enjoin and restrain the defendants from "unlawfully drawing or paying out any public moneys for the aid of or for financing the so-called city market" and to recover all moneys so expended. Attorneys for the plaintiff deny that the Oshkosh Retail Grocers' association is back of the proceedings.

NEW YORK EXPERIENCING BOOM IN HOME BUILDING

By United Press Leased Wire. A boom in building house construction is under way in New York City, according to Henry H. Curran, president of the borough of Manhattan.

Figures made public by Curran Monday showed that during the first two weeks of March plans were approved for homes for 1,076 families, compared with 419 during the corresponding period of 1920, or a gain of 61 per cent. Curran said he believed the ordinance exempting new dwellings from taxation for ten years was responsible for the increase.

Small Boom in Chicago. Chicago—A slight increase in home building in Chicago was reported Monday by Peter C. Hoy, secretary of the building commission.

Hoy said March building permits will reach 1,300, an increase of 10 over previous months. Most of the permits were for small homes. Hoy anticipates a building boom soon.

BECKER SUES COUNTY FOR JUDGE'S SALARY

Janesville—Briefs are to be submitted within the next two weeks in the suit brought against Green county by former Judge J. M. Becker for fees claimed to be due him since his removal from office. The case is being tried before Judge Grimm here.

Becker was county judge during a term before the United States entered the war with Germany. During the time he presided on the bench Becker was brought in the United States District court on a charge of violating the espionage act. He was convicted and found guilty of making disloyal utterances and was sentenced to Fort Leavenworth.

After his conviction Gov. Philipp took action to remove Becker from his bench. Becker took an appeal to the United States Court of appeals and won his contention that the conviction was in error, through legal flaws. The sentence was reversed. Becker then started suit to collect from Green county compensation for the time he was put off the bench. Another judge had been appointed to fill the term.

The amount alleged due to him is approximately $4,000.

ARE WEAK NERVES AND THIN BLOOD MAKING A FAILURE OUT OF YOU?

Iron starvation of the blood weakens the will power, robs you of your bodily and mental vigor and often keeps you from making the money and success you should.

THERE ARE 30,000,000,000,000 RED BLOOD CORPUSCLES IN YOUR BLOOD AND EACH ONE MUST HAVE IRON.

When your blood is thin, pale and watery it loses its power to change food into living tissue, and NOTHING YOU EAT DOES YOU THE PROPER AMOUNT OF GOOD—you don't get the full strength out of it, and as a consequence you become weak, nervous, irritable and easily upset.

Also YOUR BRAIN BECOMES DULL AND HEAVY, your memory poor; your will power weakened; you can't think right and you are no match for the fellow with, a keen active powerful mind.

It's the "man of blood and iron"—THE STRONG, FORCEFUL, VIGOROUS FELLOWS that make the money and become the great captains of industry.

When you get up feeling tired in the morning, when you can no longer do your day's work, when you are listless and out at night, when your digestion all goes wrong, or you have pains across the back and your face looks pale and drawn, do not wait until you are all to pieces and collapse in a state of nervous prostration, or until in your weakened condition you are unable to do your day's work, but call for Nuxated Iron at once. It is the iron that builds up your blood and makes a specimen of your red blood corpuscles, and it is the iron that gives you the strength to do your day's work. It is the iron that gives you the power of your mind and makes you a man of blood and iron. It is the iron that gives you the strength to do your day's work. It is the iron that gives you the power of your mind and makes you a man of blood and iron.

Thousands of people have surprisingly increased their strength, energy and endurance in two weeks time by this simple experiment. But in making this test be sure that the iron you take is organic iron and not metallic or mineral iron which people usually take. Organic iron is like the iron in your blood and like the iron in spinach, lettuce and apples, while metallic iron is iron just as it comes from the mine. It is a strong acid on small pieces of iron. Organic iron may be had from your druggist under the name of NUXATED IRON. Be sure of substitutes; look for the letters N. I. on every tablet. Your money will be refunded by the manufacturer if you do not obtain perfectly satisfactory results. At all druggists.

REFUSE TO PAY FOR SPECIAL SESSION

Assembly Kills Bill Providing Salaries for Five Lawmakers.

(Special to Post-Crescent) Madison—By a vote of 25 to 47 the assembly on Monday afternoon killed the Sachjen bill to appropriate $500 each to Herman Marth of Wausau, Gr. M. Thomas of Hurley; Walter Wittenman of Manitowish; former members of the assembly, Louis Foss of Milwaukee, former member of the senate, and to the widow of the late P. V. Lawson, Menasha, former member of the assembly as salary for the 1918 special session.

The five members were elected at special elections to fill vacancies. Under the constitution members of the legislature are entitled to but $500 for a regular session with "no additional compensation for special sessions." All of them served in the two special sessions in 1918, receiving only their mileage. None of them applied to the state treasurer for the $500 salary but the bill was presented to the finance committee at this session.

Attorney General W. J. Morgan in an opinion to the finance committee held the legislature could not make the appropriation under the constitution and the bill was recommended for indefinite postponement with the result above. It was stated, however, that the matter will be carried to the supreme court.

It is declared that had the members in question demanded the $500 from the state treasurer he would have been compelled to pay it, although he had already paid out $500 for the term to another member from the district represented.

POLICEWOMAN IS TO BE APPOINTED BY POLICE BOARD

Applications for Appointment to the Position Will Be Considered.

Appointment of a policewoman on the Appleton police department was assured as a result of a joint meeting of the common council and the police and fire commission in the city hall Monday evening when it was decided that the police commission is the proper organization to determine how many persons shall be appointed on the police force and who these persons shall be. Immediately following the meeting the commission invited women who believe they are eligible to fill the position of policewoman to make application for appointment. These applications are to be made to the commission.

The primary purpose of the joint meeting was to determine whether which organization has jurisdiction in the appointment of police officers and it was decided that this responsibility rests on the commission. Aldermen believed the commission is in a position to know the city's needs and its judgment will be accepted.

Much of the discussion involved the question of whether the policewoman should be an extra member of the department or if she should displace one of the male members. It was apparent that many of the aldermen favored the latter course, believing that 16 policemen and one policewoman is sufficient for the city's protection.

Chief George T. P. of the police department, however, contended it is impossible to adequately police the city with that many men and recommended that the force be maintained at 17 men and that the policewoman, if one is appointed, be an additional member. He said this will make it possible to patrol every ward in the city with a sufficient number of men to deter criminals from coming to the city and will give taxpayers the protection they deserve.

Inasmuch as this question was discussed informally, the police commission did not determine what action it would take but it apparently is the majority opinion that the judgment of the chief should be accepted and if he believes 17 men are necessary to carry on his work the necessary appointments should be made.

The policewoman will be appointed in the same manner as male members of the police force and she is to be under the jurisdiction of the chief. Applicants must submit to medical examinations and their names and qualifications will be submitted to the chief who will make a selection, subject to the confirmation of the commission.

Her salary probably will be same as is paid to probationary patrolman—$113 a month—and she will be placed on probation for six months after which her appointment is to be made permanent if her work is satisfactory. Her duties are to be prescribed by the police commission and the chief but it is believed they will be of a special nature and will not involve "traveling a beat."

Must Be Competent

Members of the commission and the chief made it plain they do not want a woman on the force merely to draw the salary. She must be qualified to do the work and must be willing to take care of any duties assigned to her. Emphasis also was placed on the necessity of respecting confidence and secrets entrusted to her.

Chief P. declared the department's efficiency can be increased by the appointment of a woman who can deal with juvenile and feminine offenders and who can obtain the confidence of women and thereby pave the way to the apprehension of male offenders who now are escaping the clutches of the law because of the natural timidity of women to confide in male officers. Delicate situations often arise in which a tactful, competent policewoman would be of valuable assistance to the department, the chief said.

Tribute to the efficiency of the local police department was paid by members of the commission who said the chief and his officers can be relied upon to do their duty under any circumstances.

MANUAL TRAINING POPULAR IN H. S.

Students Take Up Work for the General Information It Imparts.

That students of the Appleton high school show an interest in the general information gained in the manual training department is proven by a large number of students taking the courses. Elementary drawing and shop work is now being taken up by about 100 freshmen, advanced pattern work by about 48 sophomores, lorgs and machines shop practice by 24 juniors and carpentry by 12 seniors. A very lively interest is shown by the boys in their work. This is evident by the way they ask to remain after school to complete or start a bit of work, according to Robert Grant, manual training teacher.

These subjects are linked together in an interesting way. A sophomore who has learned to make a pattern in the elementary freshman class will, when he becomes a junior, advance into the forge and machine shop where he will find his model casted ready to be set up by him as a machine. The information he has gained in the machine shop, on the bench, or with his pencil, enables him to take the course in carpentry and, as he is familiar with the tools, knows how to make his plans and set up his machinery or cabinet.

The nature of the work makes it necessary for the teacher to stay at least two years. The reason for this is that the sophomore who has completed a model or pattern wants to set it up when he becomes a junior. If the teacher has been changed the earlier model probably is lost and another substituted, thus causing interest to lax because he was not permitted to finish the thing he had started.

"Dardanella"

The day of the cheap musical show is passed. Now nothing but the best will go. The costumes must reflect the latest modes, must be of the finest materials and most advanced designs; the chorus must be prettier and cleverer. The public has been getting accustomed to seeing wonderful spectacles, magnificent costumes and gorgeous scenery, and is willing to pay the price for them. Consequently, it is up to the producers to deliver the goods.

The McGregor Company's sensational musical comedy, "Dardanella," heralded as "the wonder show of the century," which will be the attraction at the Appleton theatre on Tuesday, March 22 is a popular hit and is packing them in everywhere. It is a production which represents a sincere effort to give the theatre going public something just a little more pleasing to the eye, a little more rich and colorful, a little more in the way of artistic combination of effects than any show which has gone before it.

Builds Profitable Dairy Enterprise Thru Pluck

W. G. Jamison Startles Neighbors by His "Reckless" Expenditures.

In 1905 W. G. Jamison purchased a Guernsey bull calf for $600. He startled his neighbors. They almost questioned his sanity for being so reckless with his money. About two years ago the eyes of the Guernsey world were focused upon this same man, for he had sold for the world's record price, $10,100 this same bull, Pennoyd's Golden May Secret, to W. H. Dupe of California.

This incident is one of an interesting series about Mr. Jamison and his five sons of Greenville, contained in an article in the last issue of the Wisconsin Agriculturist under the heading, "Breeding Guernseys for Production," or "How W. G. Jamison Built up a Herd with a National Reputation." The story is the leading article of that issue, starting on the front cover. It is embellished with a number of pictures of the famous Guernseys he owns, and some of his buildings.

Bought Land for $125
Mr. Jamison first settled in Neenah, but later moved to the home 80 acres in Greenville, the article states. His wife's grandfather purchased the land from the government for $125 an acre and it has been kept in the family. Other adjoining tracts were acquired, until the total acreage became 230. The father has sold the homestead and part of the land to his sons, so the active management of the farm is now with Jamison brothers. A glowing account is given by the article of the gradual development by the Jamison family of some of the best producing Guernsey herds in the country. The Pennoyd bull named above, was a factor in building up one of the strongest Guernsey herds in the country. The real productive ability of the six hundred dollar animal's dam was not known until sometime after the Jamison's had made their purchase.

Bays More Cattle
Following the sale of this bull, Mr. Jamison purchased another from the Roberts farm, Tala, Pa., named Pennoyd Man O'War. He paid a sum in the thousands, exploding the belief that his first venture in pure bred sires was luck. Nella Day of Pennoyd dam of this sire, recently produced 16,325 pounds of milk and $11.54 pounds of butter fat entitling her to the world's record. This is an indication of the type of animals used in herd building at the Jamison farm.

Other purchases have been made from time to time by Mr. Jamison or his sons with a seeming intuition for knowing a highly productive animal when they see it. A large number of bulls and heifers have been sold to breeders in this country and in all parts of the country, some at record prices.

The first modern barn built on the farm was 36 by 72 feet. It was thought to be ample for all time, but two additions, one of 36 feet and another of 46 feet have been added since. The home has been modernized and has all the conveniences of the city.

NELSON RESIGNS AS ELLINGTON TEST MAN

Henry Lammer, Cedar Grove, has been engaged by the Ellington Cow Testing association to succeed Matthew Nelson, who has resigned to engage in the pure bred cattle business. Mr. Lammer is a recent graduate of the short course in farming at the University of Wisconsin.

Mr. Nelson's resignation was accepted with considerable regret. He was instrumental in organizing and building up the Ellington association during the two years he was official tester. His ability and capable work helped make the members successful in their dairying enterprises.

POSTOFFICE NOT ALWAYS AT FAULT

Careless Messengers Are Cause of Lost or Delayed Mail, Keller Says.

It is not always the fault of the postoffice when mail does not reach its destination. Human error also is found among others who handle mail. This fact was brought out by Gustave Keller, postmaster, while he was on his way to the postoffice in the morning recently. He found an unopened letter on the sidewalk, addressed to a large business house, and one that a messenger evidently had dropped. He took a few steps further and noticed a second letter lying in the middle of the street, belonging to the same addressee. Both letters were taken to their owners, who were asked to caution their messengers against such carelessness.

"Business houses cannot be any too careful in the selection of the person who carries their mail," said Mr. Keller. "The messenger should be some-

HIGH SCHOOL TEAM IS READY FOR STATE CAGE TITLE GAMES

SQUAD TO LEAVE WEDNESDAY FOR CAPITAL CITY

Local Basketeers Holding Last Workouts in Armory G for Big Scrap.

Appleton high school basketball players are almost ready for the final effort in Madison the last three days of this week when they compete for the Wisconsin high school championship. The men will be given their last workout Tuesday night and will leave Wednesday afternoon for the battle scene. Workouts are held in the armory so the players will be accustomed to a large floor. Tournament games are to be played in the University of Wisconsin gymnasium, one of the largest playing floors in the country.

The first game of the tournament will begin at 3:30 Thursday afternoon. Menominee will play Elmwood; Madison will clash with Superior; Waukegan will play Platteville; and La Crosse will play Rhinelander. Racine was to have played against Platteville, but she was eliminated from the tournament after an investigation disclosed the fact one of the Racine players had at one time played with another team where admission was charged. The medals and the trophy won by Racine were taken away and given to the winners of second place, Waukegan and the latter team was entered into the state title race.

The contesting teams will be entertained in Madison by the college fraternities. Silver trophies will be given the winners of first and second places and gold medals will be given to the men of the winning team. Men on second and third place teams will be awarded silver medals. Gold watches will be awarded to the best forward, the best center and the best guard of the tournament.

ASK QUICK HEARING ON INCOME TAX DEDUCTIONS

By United Press Leased Wire Washington.—The federal government Monday asked the Supreme court to advance arguments on the case which will determine whether amounts paid in estate taxes can be deducted from income tax returns. The appeal is from the decision a few days ago of the court of claims which held these amounts can be deducted, despite the contentions of the government. A large amount of taxes will have to be refunded if the Supreme court affirms the decision. The suit was brought by Senator Underwood, Ann H. Woodward and Reginald armstrong of Alabama, as executors for the estate of Joseph Woodward.

COLLEGE MATTISTS MEET KIMBERLY AT KIMBERLY TONIGHT

Wrestling Feud Comes to a Head With Dual Meet at Mill Village.

Action will be spelled with a capital "A" Tuesday when the Kimberly-Clark mill team entertains the Lawrence wrestlers in a dual wrestling meet in the dining hall at Kimberly. The rivalry between the two teams is so intense that it has practically amounted to a feud and the bouts Tuesday night probably will settle a big question for both teams. The match promises to show some real championship scrapping and the mill men are hoping to knock the state championship crown from the heads of the Lawrence wrestlers. The Lawrence men, however, are confident of repeating their early season victory and want to roll up a score against their opponents which will show for once and for all time that there is only room for one team at the top and that that team comes from the Appleton college.

Eight classes will be contested. The Kimberly team has not yet been definitely decided, but the lineup probably will be as follows: 125 pound class, Reindle, Lawrence, vs. Merkle, Kimberly; 135 pound class, Peterson, Lawrence, vs. Coppers, Kimberly; 145 pound class, Mark Anderson, Lawrence, vs. Crowe, Kimberly; 155 pound class, Thomas, Lawrence, vs. C. Poca or Albers; 165 pound class, Kubitz, Lawrence, or Trapanier, Kimberly.

All other places of public amusement in Kimberly will be closed and the biggest crowd that has ever witnessed an athletic event here is expected to be present at the Kimberly dining hall. The bouts are scheduled to commence at 8 o'clock sharp and will be run off under the intercollegiate rulings of best two out of three. Both coaches Wundrow and Addinson are confident of victory and have been working their proteges hard during the last week for this last meet of the season.

PHILLY PLAYER IS MIXED IN SCANDAL

Philadelphia. — Charges that Gene Paulette, first baseman of the Philadelphia National league club, was involved in gambling activities in 1918 and 1919, are being investigated by Judge Landis. It became known here Tuesday.

"The charges against Paulette are very serious and I am awaiting the judge's decision in the case," William Baker, president of the club, said Tuesday.

Paulette's alleged activities are said to have come to the attention of John Heydler, president of the National league, when he came into possession of a letter said to have been written by Paulette to a St. Louis gambler. Baker upon hearing of it, notified Paulette not to report to the club until the case had been investigated. He is not now with the club and is said to have signed a contract to play with a semi-professional team in Massillon, Ohio.

Manager Demoran to using Harry Loufel, an outfielder, in his place. Baker intimated that if Paulette has signed with the Massillon club he is automatically suspended from organized baseball for five years.

Wandering Slugger

Lake Charles, La. — The baseball career of Frank Brazil, one of Connie Mack's most promising recruits, reads like a chapter in Bobby Roth's strolls in the majors.

Brazil already has been on seven clubs. He began to play professional ball in 1915 with the Cumberland club of the Blue Ridge League.

Went to Brooklyn Cumberland shipped him to Brooklyn in 1919. Brooklyn sent him to the Hartford club of the Eastern League. Hartford railroaded him to Winnipeg.

Winnipeg returned him to the Philadelphia Athletics in 1920. Connie Mack sent him to Atlanta. Atlanta bequeathed him to St. Paul, where he served as a punch bitter last fall.

Back With Connie Now he's back with Connie for another trial.

Brazil is a natural hitter. He takes a left handed cut at the ball. During his three years in pro ball his lowest mark was .233, made with the Atlanta club.

He is a fast infielder and can play any position around the square. In 1919 he led the Eastern League and the Western Canada League in batting.

He is 21 and weighs 175.

Wants to Be Regular Since the A's can stand some of the heavy stuck work Brazil is apt to be a regular in Mack's lineup this year.

TWO DAY SHOOTING TOURNEY PLANNED

Appleton Is Awarded Sept. 4 and 5 as Dates for Big Event.

Authority has been granted the Appleton Angling and Shooting Club to hold a registered tournament here on Sept. 4 and 5, according to information received by Secretary G. L. Chamberlain from the American Trapshooting association. These dates are Labor day and the Sunday preceding, probably the most favored of the entire year. For many years those dates have been awarded to Milwaukee but Appleton's application was entered long ahead of Milwaukee and the local sportsmen were given the preference.

It is believed the two day holiday

COLLEGE MEN PLAN SPRING GRID WORK

McChesney Will Start Soon to Prepare for 1921 Football Season.

Coach H. D. McChesney, director of athletics at Lawrence college, is beginning preparations for spring football practice in order to give his 1921 men a chance to become familiar with the style of play before the opening of the fall season. The men will be drilled in formations and signals so that they will get off to an excellent start next fall. There will be no effort to condition the men at this time. This will be the first time in many years that football men here have been given spring practice but it is part of the campaign to capture the intercollegiate title twice in succession.

Mr. McChesney will start the next season with nearly all of the 1920 champions back in the harness and he has secured the promises of several prominent high school stars to attend the local school next year. It is quite probable several other men who made names for themselves in the high school football field will be induced to attend Lawrence before the next school session opens.

Track work will be started at the local school in the near future. Efforts will be made to schedule a dual meet for Lawrence field this season with either Beloit or Ripon, it was said.

team play half its games on its home grounds. So far as possible no games will be played in Kimberly when Kaukauna plays at home.

Preparations for the opening of the season are being rushed with all possible speed. Every team in the league will soon begin work repairing its diamond in order to have the grounds in good shape for the first game.

The 1921 schedule will be found elsewhere on this page.

WOMEN BOWLERS ARE IMPROVING THEIR GAME

Scores of the Friday evening bowling team of Appleton women's club are steadily improving. Miss Bertha Kolitsch holds the highest score for last week, rolling up 157 points in one game. The results of the Friday game follows: Miss Isabella Spiel, 136-137-116; Miss Bertha Kolitsch, 157-123-131; Miss Mathilde Stoegebauer, 144-108-107; Martha Koepke, 133-142-123; Milly Voigt, 99-101-93; Mrs. Thomas Long, 134-146-124.

PLAY TEN GAMES ON HOME BALL GROUNDS

Appleton will play ten of its 20 games in the Fox River Valley Baseball league on its home diamond, it was decided by the league magnates at a meeting in the Sherman house at which the 1921 schedule was drafted.

The local team will open the season here May 15 with Kimberly and will end it here September 5 with New London.

the real drawing card and should get the bigger slice of the purse. "I do not believe that Carpenter will agree to any terms other than those of the original agreement," Captain Mallet, the intimate friend and personal representative of the Frenchman, said here Tuesday. Gus Wilson, Carpenter's trainer, said Tuesday that Carpenter would not appear for less than the $200,000 guaranteed in the original agreement. "If Rickard can give a percentage that will be the equivalent of $200,000 then Georges will fight," he said. "Otherwise there will be law suits to collect the forfeit."

Rickard has cabled Carpenter telling him of the portion demanded by Dempsey and of the slice that remains for him under the new plans.

MICHIGAN U. CAPTAIN ADMITS PROFESSIONALISM

By United Press Leased Wire Ann Arbor, Mich.—Vernon Parks, captain of the Wolverine baseball team, confessed Tuesday he played on the Portland Coast league squad last summer and resigned. Parks' action makes him a professional and ineligible for college baseball.

"Parks told me he played because he was in need of money," said Athletic Director Bartelme. Peter Van Boven of Grand Rapids, was elected captain to succeed Parks. At the signing of the Declaration of Independence, Benjamin Franklin said "If we do not hang together we will hang separately."

GEORGES REFUSES PERCENTAGE BASIS

Legal Battle May Follow Attempt to Dodge Purse for Big Fight.

By United Press Leased Wire New York.—Serious disagreement, legal battles and perhaps a final calling off of the Dempsey-Carpenter fight may result if Tex Rickard insists upon a reduction of the purse.

While he has not given official utterance of a desire to remove that half million dollar load from his back, Rickard is known to be entertaining a plan to have the fighters work on a percentage basis.

Jack Kearns has already agreed to send the champion into the ring for a cut of the gate but it promises to be an entirely different matter to get the consent of the Frenchman.

"I am always willing to give any good card 60 per cent of the receipts," Rickard said not long ago when discussing his desire to get boxing away from guaranteed purses.

He is understood to have the same ideas on the Dempsey-Carpenter bout. The division of the 50 per cent among the fighters promises to be the greatest obstacle, however.

Kearns has agreed to accept 35 per cent for Dempsey and leave the remaining 24 per cent for Carpenter. Carpenter Wants Big Pot

That's where the rub comes. In the early negotiations Carpenter couldn't see that Dempsey was entitled to more than he. He maintained that he was just as great a drawing card and that both should get an equal sum. Kearns claims that Dempsey is the champion and

DON'T SUFFER WITH NEURALGIA

Use Soothing Musterole

When those sharp pains go shooting through your head, when your skull seems as if it would split, just rub a little Musterole on your temples and neck. It draws out the inflammation, soothes away the pain, usually giving quick relief.

Musterole is a clean, white ointment, made with oil of mustard. Better than a mustard plaster and does not blister. Many doctors and nurses frankly recommend Musterole for sore throat, bronchitis, croup, stiff neck, asthma, neuralgia, congestion, pleurisy, rheumatism, lumbago, pains and aches of the back or joints, sprains, sore muscles, bruises, chilblains, frosted feet—colds of the chest (it often prevents pneumonia). It is always dependable.

SECOND DISTRICT CAGE EVENTS OPEN

Lincoln Eighth and Franklin Sixth Grade Teams Win Opening Series.

There were lively times in Columbus and Lincoln eighth grade teams won the opening series of the annual basketball tournament. The Lincoln eighth grade team opened the series with a victory over Franklin sixth grade team and will play an afternoon game Tuesday.

The Lincoln eighth grade team walked away with the game played with Lincoln seventh grade team with a score of 17 to 1. K. D. Packard, Bowby and Hines starred for the former. Gorchik scored the only point for the seventh grade.

Perhaps the most closely fought contest was that of Lincoln sixth and Franklin sixth, in which the latter won by a score of 4 to 0. It was a close contest with teams evenly balanced.

Lincoln eighth grade held Columbus seventh almost to a game end score, but Columbus managed to shoot one basket, making the final score 17 to 1. Orville Muenster and Reetz were point winners for Lincoln. Arthur Muenster for Columbus.

Lots were drawn in the morning to determine the order of play. Franklin eighth grade drew a blank, therefore did not enter the contest until Tuesday afternoon. Lots drawn Tuesday morning among the winners of Monday's and Franklin eighth grade made the afternoon line up: Lincoln eighth grade vs. Lincoln eighth grade north; Franklin eighth grade vs. Franklin sixth.

Winners of the Tuesday event are to play for first place in the finals at 8 o'clock Wednesday evening in Columbus gymnasium. The losers are to play for third place. The game will be open to the public. Carl Enger acted as referee and Guy Barlow as coach.

R. H. Starkey, Joseph Dennison and Mr. Emick are acting as judges and will award the pennants.

GREAT LAKES "MADELON" MURDERED BY HUSBAND

By United Press Leased Wire
Rockford, Ill.—The "Madelon" of the Great Lakes training station is murdered here Tuesday.

Mrs. Beulah Upton Howard, who, like the girl in the popular French war song, kept up the morale of student sailors at Great Lakes by singing during the war, was shot in a hotel here Monday night by Corporal Charles Howard, Camp Grant, her husband, who then committed suicide.

The marriage of "Madelon" to the corporal was the result of a war romance. Her home was in Berkeley, Va.

Public believed jealousy prompted Corporal Howard's deed.

FEAR HANGING SCENE WILL INFLUENCE JURY

By United Press Leased Wire
Chicago—Witnessing of a grim hanging on the stage by a jury hearing a murder case is no reason why the jury should be dismissed, Judge John J. Sullivan said Tuesday.

The jury hearing the case of Eddie Morris whom the state wants to hang for alleged murder of a policeman, was entertained at a theater Monday night.

The climax of the show was a hanging.

Requests by prosecuting attorneys that a new jury be chosen were upset by the ruling of the court.

WOMAN SPURNS POSITION IN HARDING CABINET

Washington—"I wouldn't have the job if it were offered to me on a silver platter."

Mrs. Harriet Upton Taylor of Ohio, Republican national committeewoman, brought her fist down on the desk by way of emphasis.

She has been mentioned repeatedly for the proposed post of secretary of public welfare, a new cabinet department President Harding is known to favor.

In fact, he pledged himself to group various welfare bureaus under one head.

Already there is opposition in Congress.

Will he remember his campaign promise to women?

Mrs. Taylor says he will. She and the other five committee women had luncheon the other day at the White House.

"President Harding is even stronger today in his belief in the importance of a welfare program," says Mrs. Taylor.

"While I believe he is opposed to the executive part of government forcing the legislature part to act, I know he has no thought of doing anything else but standing firmly for such a department."

The incoming Congress can do nothing but carry out President Harding's plan if it cares to hold the women's vote in the next congressional election.

HEAVY TAX BURDEN TO LAST 20 YEARS LONGER

London—Englishmen cannot have any relief from present high taxation for at least 20 years, says James Parker, junior lord of the treasury.

"National debt and expenditures are very hard to get down," says Parker. "In the 100-year period, from the battle of Waterloo up to 1914, Britain's national debt had been reduced only three per cent."

"We live in splendid times, and our capacity for reducing debt with our enormously increased productive power is much greater, but it is just as well to face facts."

Parker thinks that the cost of running the British government during the next decade will be at least $5,000,000,000 a year.

YOUTH REPUDIATES MURDER CONFESSION

By United Press Leased Wire
Warsaw, Ind.—Both the prosecution and the defense in the Atwood murder mystery kept their silence Tuesday and "sawed wood."

Virgil Luckert, 15, confessed slayer of Leroy Lovett, his youthful chum, refused to talk further on advice of his attorney and Prosecutor Graham continued to gather evidence for the special grand jury which meets within a few days to investigate the murder.

Robert A. Buhler, Fort Wayne attorney, retained by Decker's relatives as the boy's counsel, attempted to repudiate the confession Virgil made to Sheriff and Mrs. C. B. Moon and detectives working on the case. Buhler said his client confessed the crime when the detectives promised him leniency as a result of which they told him he would be sent to prison for two years and the prison training would be similar to that a man received in the army. Buhler had a signed statement from the youth to bear this out.

HOLD 5 IN NEW ORLEANS FOR WALL STREET BLAST

By United Press Leased Wire
New Orleans, La.—Five men said to be Russians and Germans are held in the Pa. prison here awaiting transportation to New York where it is said they will be examined by the United States district attorney in connection with the recent Wall street bomb explosion that killed 34 and injured 130 persons.

The men were landed here Monday night from the shipping board vessel Rushville, which is under charter of the New York and Cuban mail line.

ASKING BIDS FOR COUNTY ROAD WORK

Applicants for Road Patrol Jobs Ordered to Take Examinations.

Plans for the Seymour Appleton road Greenfield-Shelton road and Little Chute hill are in the hands of the county highway commissioner and at the meeting of the county, state road and bridge committee Monday afternoon the commissioner was authorized to advertise for bids. Each piece of road is about a mile and a half in length.

Thirteen firms submitted bids for three 2 1/2 ton tractors which the county is about to purchase for patrol work. No contracts were awarded, the committee taking the matter under advisement for a few days.

All of the 75 patrol applicants are instructed to appear at the office of the county highway commissioner at 1:30 p. m. March 24, for the purpose of submitting to an oral examination. Last year it was almost impossible to get patrolmen, while this year there are three applicants for each position.

Troop Committee Meets
A meeting of the troop committee of the first ward school is to be held in the school building Tuesday evening to discuss plans for enlargement of the work and organization of boy scout troop No. 2. E. R. Henderson, scout executive, will confer with the committee.

The motion pictures included the tractor on the farm, tractor demonstration at Wichita, Kan., and how seeds germinate and grow. The speakers were J. E. Lynch of Janesville, C. E. NO CHANGES AMONG THE A. B. C. TOURNEY LEADERS

Buffalo — Although 32 five-man teams rolled in the A. B. C. tournament here Monday night, none was able to rank with the ten leaders. The Central Alley five of Canton, Ohio, rolled the highest score of the evening with a total of 2,838 which placed them in eleventh position. The honors of the doubles were carried off by Al Pope and Fred Stowell of Chicago, who rolled a total of 1,267 and advanced into fifth place.

There was little high shooting in the singles event. Bill Davis of Columbus, Ohio, turned in the best card with a score of 639 but failed to rank with the leaders.
